PSCU to Provide Payment Processing & Contact Center Services for Credit Union Association of New Mexico

Nation's leading CUSO announces partnership with New Mexico trade association

St. Petersburg, FL and Albuquerque, NM – (Jan. 30, 2017) – The Credit Union Association of New Mexico (CUANM) has announced a partnership with PSCU to augment support for the Association's 42 credit unions. Under terms of the agreement, PSCU will provide credit, debit and bill pay processing and 24/7/365 contact center support for CUANM's credit union members.

"The Credit Union Association of New Mexico has been helping credit unions better serve their members for more than five decades," said Paul Stull, President & CEO of the Association.

"This partnership with PSCU allows us to provide a more robust offering of the products and services our credit unions' members use every day."

By leveraging its scale and buying power, PSCU is able to help credit unions of all sizes compete more effectively in their respective markets. PSCU is committed to providing unparalleled service and continued investments in technology. Benefits of the partnership include increased functionality, access to new payment technologies like EMV and digital and mobile wallets, and operational cost savings.

"As the nation's leading CUSO, we have a depth of resources and knowledge that we leverage on behalf of our partners," said Chuck Fagan, PSCU President & CEO. "We are confident this will enable us to collaborate with the Credit Union Association of New Mexico and its credit union members to help them grow and better serve their members."

This agreement with the CUANM is the fifth such partnership PSCU has established with credit union leagues and associations across the country. Previous agreements include the Cooperative Credit Union Association, the Credit Union League of Connecticut, the Pennsylvania Credit Union Association and the Indiana Credit Union League.
